PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Failure to maintain accurate records of all transactions.
2	Improper handling of confidential information.
3	Non-compliance with data retention policies.
4	Failure to implement adequate security measures.
5	Improper disposal of sensitive data.
6	Failure to conduct regular security audits.
7	Non-compliance with industry standards.
8	Improper access controls.
9	Failure to provide employee training on security.
10	Non-compliance with privacy laws.

Special Condition # 19: The defendant shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days at the direction of the supervising officer. The defendant's participation in the programs by the RRC is limited to employment, education, treatment, and religious services at the direction of the supervising officer. The defendant shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility.

Supporting Evidence: The offender last appeared before Your Honor on June 23, 2016, for the purpose of a supervised release revocation hearing. The offender at that time was ordered to an 8-month custody term with credit for time served and a 28-month term of supervised release to follow. The offender was additionally ordered to reside at the RRC following his release from custody. The offender reported to the RRC on January 20, 2017, and resided at that location until April 24, 2017.

On April 24, 2017, the undersigned received confirmation from the RRC that the offender's placement was terminated due to failure to follow staff directives related to urinalysis testing. On April 25, 2017, the offender reported to the U.S. Probation Office and advised that he had been terminated from the RRC on April 24, 2017, due to failure to comply with staff directives related to urinalysis testing. A urine sample was collected at the U.S. Probation Office, which tested negative. The offender was then directed to return to his previous residence.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
